Majesty, Worship His Majesty

MAJESTY

Call to confession

Let us confess our sins, for the Holy One delights in blessing those who seek to walk with God.

Prayer of confession

God, we have not done what is blameless and right, nor spoken truth from the heart with love. We do not keep your word, and when we participate in gossip our words and deeds cause pain. Forgive us by the power of your mercy, that we might stand in the goodness of Christ and walk in the light of his love. Amen.

Declaration of forgiveness

Sisters and brothers, your sins are forgiven by the faith of Christ, who chose love over hatred and forgiveness over blame. Rejoice and be glad, for God's mercy is great; Jesus brings healing, justice, and peace. Thanks be to God!

Welcome to the Reverend Chris Richardson

Rev. Chris Richardson works part-time as a chaplain for Hospice Ministries and is an elder in full connection in the United Methodist Church. She is a graduate of Duke Divinity School. Chris has lived in Pike County since marrying husband Kevin in 2004. They have three children: Colin, Brooke, and Emma.

Vision 2023 (adopted by Session on December 11, 2022)

Believe in Me and grow our church together in 2023. In 2023, we shall regularly reach out to inactive members, encouraging them to renew participation in the life of JJWMPC. We shall also increase visibility through social media and community involvement that encourages others to join our membership. This will include promotion of church facilities as a destination for appropriate community events, with special emphasis on attracting young adults and youth. In doing so, we shall be widely recognized as a vibrant, welcoming church family that loves the Lord and one another. These initiatives will serve to grow membership and double attendance by year end, 2023.

Reminder of God's call to stewardship

Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you (Luke 6:38). Thank you to all who have already submitted 2023 pledge cards, greatly helping the church plan the year's budget. Please speak with Dennis Ross, 2023 Stewardship chairman, with any questions or concerns.

Tea party for the Moaks

Please join us for a tea party in honor of June and Carl Moak following worship today. Though sad for their departure, we happily celebrate the over half-century they have spent in our community.

Meals for the hungry

J.J. White coordinates a program to provide meals to the hungry in our community. The participating churches are J.J. White Memorial, Centenary, and the Church of the Mediator. Please contact Melisa DeCoux, program director, if you can help.

MICA needs

McComb Interdenominational Care Association (MICA) especially needs dried beans and spaghetti sauce to feed our community's hungry. Please bring contributions to the church or to MICA.

Donations for mission partner

At Souper Bowl Sunday (February 12), we will collect donations for our mission partner, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. PDA's motto Out of Chaos, Hope reminds us of the many needs from disaster survivors throughout the world. Seek God's presence on their behalf with your gifts and prayers.

Sanctuary flowers

Today's sanctuary flowers are provided by Sue Nunnery Reeves to the glory of God and in memory of Dr. Jack L. Nunnery and Col. Robert S. Reeves. The sign-up sheet for providing flowers in our sanctuary is available on the front pew. If you have questions, please see Carol Rawlings.

Lectionary readings and questions for reflection

The full list of this week's scripture readings includes: Psalm 15; 1 Corinthians 1:18-31; Matthew 5:1-12. How do we live in a reality we cannot yet see? Where in the church's life of prayer and service do you see instances of God's justice, peace, and healing? Then give thanks, and ask God, Where am I being called to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly in the ordinary course of my day?
